

The Department of Vocational Rehabilitation assists Kentuckians with disabilities to achieve suitable employment and independence.

Key Services for Job Seekers

-  Assessments to help individuals determine occupational abilities, talents and interests.
-  Counseling and guidance that helps individuals to set and achieve realistic vocational goals.
-  Job placement that matches individuals' skills and interests to jobs.
-  Training may be provided on the job, at a technical school, business school or in another setting.
-  Transportation assistance may include rehabilitation technology to help individuals with disabilities secure employment and achieve independence.
-  Rehabilitation technology may include modifying existing devices or creating custom devices to assist individuals with disabilities both in the workplace and at home.
-  The Perkins Rehabilitation Center, a facility that provides a comprehensive menu of services.

Key Services for Employers and the Community

-  Job analyses and preparation of job-qualified applicants.
-  Disability awareness training for co-workers.
-  Assistance for employers who have employees with disability-related problems.
-  Assistance with barrier-free architectural design in the workplace.
-  Tax credit incentives.

For more information call toll-free 1-800-372-7172 (TDD)
or visit our Web site at kydvr.state.ky.us

Cabinet for Workforce Development
Equal Education and Employment Opportunities
M/F/D